

Health & Safety Policy

W. Christie (Industrial) Ltd is committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of its employees, so far as is reasonably practicable. W. Christie fully accept responsibility for other persons who may be affected by its activities. W. Christie will take steps to ensure that statutory duties are met at all times.

It is the duty of management to ensure that all processes and systems of work are designed to take account of health and safety and are properly supervised at all times. To this end management will appoint competent people to assist them in meeting their statutory duties, including, where appropriate, specialists from outside the organisation.

W. Christie will consult with all employees on matters affecting their health, safety and welfare. Adequate facilities and arrangements will be maintained to enable employees to raise issues of health and safety.

Each employee will be given such information, instruction and training as is necessary to enable the safe performance of work activities. Every employee must co-operate with us to enable all statutory duties to be complied with.

The successful implementation of this policy requires total commitment from all, each individual has a legal obligation to take reasonable care for his or her own health and safety, and for the safety of other people who may be affected by his or her acts or omissions.

This policy will be regularly monitored to ensure that the objectives are achieved. It will be reviewed and, if necessary, revised in the light of legislative or organisational change.
